OUTBOARD HYDRO DRIVER TOM PRINGLE PASSES

SPOKANE VALLEY — A notable name in local outboard hydroplane racing, Tom Pringle, was remembered by friends and family in a Dec. 13 memorial service. Pringle passed away Nov. 16 at age 78 following a battle with cancer.

Following in his father's footsteps, Tom competed in outboard hydroplane racing alongside his brothers Ronnie and Randy. He was a competitive and successful racer and a long-time member of the State Line Outboard Racing Association.

According to an obituary, Tom was born February 19, 1947 in Spokane WA. He was raised in Stateline, ID next to the family business-the First and Last Chance bar and restaurant. He graduated from Immaculate Heart of Mary High School in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho and went on to an over 40-year career with EZ Loader Boat Trailers. Tom was a devoted father with a quick wit and never hesitated to speak his mind.

The Pringle boys had a penchant for fast cars and boats. Tom loved to hear the sound of a high-horsepower engine-especially the one in his Ford Lightning pickup truck. He was very mechanical and enjoyed the challenge of repairing discarded items, whether it be an old chainsaw or a four-wheeler he found at one of the hundreds of yard sales he visited over the years. He appreciated the unique "treasures" he would find at these sales and would often purchase an item just because he thought it would be an interesting conversation piece to share with friends and families.

Tom loved the outdoors and enjoyed hunting and fishing, especially with his father-in-law Wilbur Mead who he greatly admired. They spent many years hunting deer and elk and fishing for salmon and steelhead. One of Tom's passions in retirement was traveling to Montana to shoot gophers, usually with a dog and four-wheeler in tow. He was a crack shot and enjoyed providing this "service" to local ranchers.

Tom is survived by his daughter, Shelly (Sean); granddaughters: Emily (Scott), Allyson (Chris); great-grandchildren: Declan and Ezra; sister Nancy Bishop; sister-in-law Donna Pringle; former wife: Susie Williams; numerous nieces, and many wonderful friends. He was preceded in death by his parents: Eugene and Delores Pringle, brothers: Dick, Ronnie, and Randy; and niece Debbie Edwards.

KLEYN, PLYBON EARN TOP-10 FINISHES AT SNOWBALL DERBY

PENSACOLA, Fla. (Dec. 8, 2025) — It was a marathon weekend for the 58th running of the Snowball Derby which due to rain was not decided until Monday, Dec. 8 with Stephen Nasse winning.

Notable for the regional were the finishes of a pair of of former Northwest Super Late Model Series champions, Kasey Kleyn and Hayden Plybon who claimed top-10 finishes in this who's who race on the Five Flags half mile.

Kleyn, from Ephrata and the 2024 NWSLM champ, finished all 300 laps and was fourth. Kleyn was 3.821 seconds off the lead.

Spokane's Plybon finished ninth, up from 12th in 2024 and was the last car on the lead lap — 10.34 seconds off the lead.

Another Northwest entrant was Kole Raz from Lake Oswego, Ore. who finished 24th.

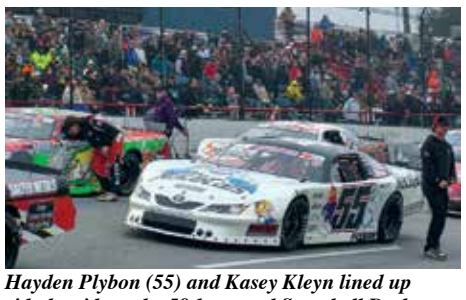
Tom Plybon, Haeden's father, provided some background on the time spent in normally sunny Florida.

"Normally, there's a big qualifying day on Fridays for the super late, but that was rained out and pushed to Saturday," he wrote in Facebook Messenger.

"So we ended up qualifying both the super late and the Pro late Saturday by the time we were done with all of that it started raining again. They had to dry the track and then we took the green flag in the Pro Late 2:30 AM."

The super late race was supposed to kick off Sunday afternoon, Plybon added. Teams then went through all the introductions and the national anthem and then the fog set in on a wet race track so they canceled the race and ended up running Monday.

Nasse claimed his first Snowball victory and earning the $50,000 first-place prize. The event featured top short-track drivers and NASCAR stars from across the nation.



Hayden Plybon (55) and Kasey Kleyn lined up side-by-side at the 58th annual Snowball Derby, Dec. 8 at Five Flags Speedway in Pensacola, Fla. Kleyn, from Ephrata, finished fourth while Plybon from Spokane was ninth in a race plagued by rain delays. Plybon Racing photo
